

Guided Pathways

Florida SouthWestern State College

ELEVATE YOUR GUIDANCE COUNSELING EXPERIENCE

FSW's Guided Pathways is an innovative program designed to streamline your college conversations with students and boost student success by keeping them on track to degree completion. This dynamic initiative not only assists students in selecting optimal courses for their majors but also enhances the counseling experience by offering a comprehensive understanding of course requirements for popular degree programs. Ensure both you and your students navigate the path to college success seamlessly with Guided Pathways.

How can COUNSELORS use GUIDED PATHWAYS with their STUDENTS?

Explore FSW's 10 Academic and Career Pathways with students to see what degrees and careers match their interests

Use the specific AA transfer program maps and AS degree program maps to show students all the courses they will need to complete to earn the degree and the recommended order of classes

Use the program maps to help students choose courses that meet their goals when working with them to fill out their registration paperwork

Want to see how close a student is to earning a degree and meeting common prerequisites? Use program maps as a checklist and mark off completed courses
